Contest Release and Consent

By signing the entry form, you consent to the entry of your submission and agree to the Aboriginal Day Celebration Art Contest rules and the decisions of the judges, which are final and binding in all matters to this contest.

Your signature grants the Edmonton & Area Child and Family Services Authority, rights to announce your name as a winner, if chosen, at the Aboriginal Day Celebration on June 22, 2018.

Your signature grants the Aboriginal Day Planning Committee, rights to display your artwork and reproduce your artwork for publication and promotion purposes in connection with any Aboriginal Day Celebration.

Your signature confirms your entry is in compliance with the contest rules and that you agree to the following conditions:

- You confirm this entry is your original work and does not defame or invade the rights or privacy of any person and does not contain any material that would violate or infringe on copyrights, patents, trademarks, or intellectual property rights of any person or organization.
- You agree to accept all the terms, rules and conditions of the Aboriginal Day Celebration Art Contest.
- You will not hold liable the Edmonton & Area Child and Family Services Authority, the Paul First Nations Health & Community Wellness, Parkland County, or any other person or organization organizing or assisting with the Aboriginal Day Celebration Art Contest for any entries that were submitted but not received by the organizers of the Aboriginal Day Celebration.
